Celebrate 50th Anniversary & Relive Woodstock 1969:

Better known as the Woodstock Festival Museum, the Bethel Woods Center for the Arts is a museum and outdoor performing arts center.

The Bethel Woods Center for the Arts stands on the site of the original 1969 Woodstock festival in Bethel, NY.

Personal stories and profiles, multi-media exhibit displays and experiences, programs, and educational events are part of the experience.

The $100 million-dollar facility aims to put into context not only the impact of the legendary Woodstock Festival but also the culture, style, and ethos of the Sixties generation.

In 1969, some festival-goers traveled by VW Beetle, many hitchhiked, stars flew in on helicopters, and some groups descended on buses. Throngs were so heavy to reach the Woodstock Festival that the New York State Troopers closed down the New York State Thruway for a period of several hours.

If not for farmer Max Yasgur, the Woodstock Music Festival might not have taken place. Two Catskills villages refused to accommodate it; he opened his field.

So, come and join us as we relive the history of probably the "Greatest" Concert of all time!
