Electrical Inspectors*

*Must use an inspector from this list

*Inspectors charge their own fees

Joe Pellegrino (607) 351-2334

Mark Swan (607) 523-8916

Due to variability of the water table within the Town of Southport, the Drainage Committee recommends that individuals proposing to construct structures, having the lowest story below ground, within the Town of Southport corporate limits, complete the following:

1. Conduct a minimum of one (1) deep observation hole per lot where new home construction is proposed. A deep observation hole is a hole constructed in the soil, typically by a backhoe or excavator, which exposes the soil column for inspection and also allows for the determination of groundwater levels. It should be noted that more than one (1) deep observation hole may be required to accurately characterize the soil profile and to identify the maximum groundwater level.

The deep observation hole should be excavated to a depth greater than the anticipated maximum depth of the proposed structure. It is recommended that the deep observation hole remain exposed for a period of time great enough to allow for water (if any) entering said hole to seek a stable level. It shall be the responsibility of the individual(s) constructing the deep observation hole to provide adequate protection (i.e. fencing) around the excavated area until the deep observation hole is properly backfilled.

It is recommended that an engineer or soil scientist inspect deep observation holes for bedrock, permeable and impermeable material, groundwater or signs of the average seasonal high-water. It is recommended that the deep observation hole be dug when the groundwater is near its maximum elevation.

2. Request United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Chemung County Soil Survey maps and associated technical soil descriptions from the Town of Southport or the Chemung County Soil & Water Conservation District Office. The USDA Soil Survey Maps shall encompass the new home construction site while the soil description data shall detail general soil profiles, approximate depth to bedrock, approximate depth to groundwater, typical soil permeability ranges, limitations of soil for septic tank filter fields and limitations of soils for homesites.
3. Request copies of Federal Emergency Management Agency Flood Insurance Rate Maps from the Town of Southport or the Chemung County Soil & Water Conservation District Office to identify potential impacts of nearby floodplains on groundwater in the project area.
4. Use the above information when considering to include or not to include the construction of a basement for the proposed structure within the Town of Southport. If a basement is proposed, the above information could be used in the decision process regarding the maximum depth of the basement floor slab.

I hereby acknowledge receiving a copy of this document. It is my responsibility to notify purchaser of the property.
